Foundation English

Foundation English is a unique course designed to prepare individuals for work, study and life. It aims to equip individuals with the basic elements of the English language – from forming simple sentences to holding conversations about everyday situations.

This course will initially focus on listening and speaking skills before introducing reading and writing skills.

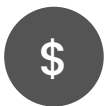

The course delivery is blended with digital learning assets to reinforce learning after class. It comprises authentic materials (videos, articles) as well as grammar, vocabulary, and how-to's.
